

RULES REGARDING DONATIONS FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE WINDRUSH PROPERTY OWNERS ASSOCIATION

The Windrush Creek Property Owners Association may accept donations for the good of the Association.

The Board will consider and accept or decline capital and material donations based on the appropriateness, applicability, safety concerns, and maintenance costs.

Donations must be evidenced by a written document executed by the donor so it is clear that the donation belongs to the association forever and may not be taken back. Community associations such as ours are not I.R.S. qualified religious or charitable organizations, so donations to the association are NOT tax deductible.

Funds from a capital donation may be used only for expenditures identified in the donation description, not general operating expenditures.

Donations could take the form of:

- Newsletters
- Benches
- Flower Gardens
- Shrubs & Trees
- Playground Equipment
- Exercise Equipment
- Underwriting the costs for special projects

Donations could be made in the form of:

- Memorial Gifts
- Anniversary Gifts
- "In Honor Of" Gifts
- Outright Gifts

Donations may be recognized by:

- Engraved Paver Stones
- Newsletter Recognition
- Plaque Placed on Item
